

RICHMOND, VA., SUNDAY MORNING, JANUARY 5, 1908.

I have got to have this tooth drawn out right away have it waked me and it ached me for it waked me and yesterday all night long and yesterday

So then drive me gently cabby to the cruel dentist's shop But go very, very slowly if you care to you may stop.

Now when he had reached the dentist's every bit of ache had gone every thro' of pain had vanished "Cabby you may just drive on." Tige

HE GOES TO THE DENTIST.

1

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH YOU BUSTER?

2

I'M NEARLY DEAD WITH THE TOOTH ACHE

GO TO THE DENTIST'S

3

I'LL FOOL THIS LITTLE SASSY TOOTH

4

I DON'T BELIEVE HE IS AT HOME

GO ON IN BUSTER

WELL, HERES THE PLACE

5

GO ON IN BUSTER!

IT DOESN'T ACHE NOW TIGE

6

7

MURDER

OUCH

8

WE'RE OUT! MY TOOTH AND I

9

YOU LITTLE IMP I KNEW I'D GET YOU SOME TIME

10

WHY DIDN'T YOU GIVE ME COCAINE AT LEAST

11

STOP

12

WELL HERE'S THE TOOTH SO YOU CAN SEE FOR YOURSELF

DRIVE ME TO THE DENTIST CABBY - TO THE DENTIST SAID THE MAN. "ONLY LISTEN CABBY, DRIVE ME JUST AS SLOWLY AS YOU CAN. SOME PROFESSOR SAID THAT OUR FINGERS, EARS, EYES AND NOSES THINK - WELL I KNOW OUR TEETH THINK. THEY KNOW ENOUGH TO QUIT ACHING WHEN WE GET TO THE DENTISTS. I'D RATHER HAVE A THOUSAND DOLLARS THAN THE TOOTH ACHE B.B."
